Office container equipment has brought a lot of convenience to people's life. As an office container manufacturers, we produce all kinds of office container products. The construction site always needs the facilities to arrange the worker. And the place needs to be providing for meeting and store the documents. This place is called a "portable site office", even though space is big and with good decoration. And the portable site office is comfortable, multi-functional, attractive. When you need a house that is easily moved, fast built, comfortable and safe, then our container office supplier is the best solution for you. This portable office is developed on the basis of the shipping container. It adopts the size of shipping container but makes it more flexible. Our standard size of container house is 5.95*3*2.8m (L*W*H), and it can be combined with each other to make bigger space. It can also be stacked up for 2 floors. Office container can be decorated freely according to your need, includes different colors or patterns of the exterior wall, slope roof, awning, floor, etc. Based on your requirements and local climate, our professional designer can also provide free design for you. Visualize your thoughts about the house so you can confirm details easily.
